

All quotes are from Somer Phoebus or Michelle Myers unless otherwise noted.

When someone comes at you and is acting like they are angry at you, something is going on and they don't understand. - MM

In misunderstanding anger at their situation for anger for God, if you represent God in their life, it will be normal for them to transfer their anger on you. - MM

We have a real enemy and he is the only one that we need to be angry with. - MM

Lovingly show them the character of God. - MM

Running and hiding is not always the answer when you don't align with your company's values. - SP

There is so much more you can do inside the parameters of your workspace. - SP

You may not be able to use your words. - SP

Love + silence = some of the greatest impact. - SP

The way that you live your life will reflect Him when you are walking with Him. - SP

You have to earn the right to speak into other people's lives. - SP

You have to love them and love them and love them until they are willing to listen to you. - SP

Be a missionary where we need you most. - SP

It's ok to be silent until you earn the right to speak into people's lives. - SP

Consider how you are wired, the needs of your family, the demands of your time, the season of your life when planning your daily schedule. - MM

Don't feel guilty if you have to hire help with your kids. You are not a bad mom if you have to hire help. - MM

I schedule my time based on my mood. Know when you are more likely to be productive. - MM

The gospel is very simple, simple enough for a child to understand. - MM

All quotes are from Somer Phoebus or Michelle Myers unless otherwise noted.

You don't have to know everything in order to be ready to accept Christ, and follow in obedience with a believer's baptism. - MM

Don't confused salvation and sanctification. - MM

Dreams and goals have to fall under the authority of Jesus. - SP

Intentionally surrender your results. - SP

You can't tell the difference between striving and surrender just looking at your actions. The difference between striving and surrender is a heart posture. - MM

It's about the motivation and who you are relying upon for the results. - MM

If you are depending on God for results, He is setting the pace, and you feel His presence, that is surrender. If you are depending on yourself for results, you're setting your own pace, and you feel distant from Him, you're striving. - MM

Your goal as a leader is to set the example. - SP

You can't police a Sabbath for your team. - SP

Your team should understand that you need a day of rest if that is one of your values. - SP

Taking a day off or Sabbath is a great Jesus ninja way to share your values. - SP

Being a workaholic is all about what happens in your brain. - MM

If you are unable to turn something off in your brain, then it is taking priority placement that it was never meant to take. - MM

Your work will never satisfy you. - MM

Let God be your God, let work be your work. - MM

Communicate what you've done with more personality when writing a resume. - SP

More personality and less words make you stand out. - SP

All quotes are from Somer Phoebus or Michelle Myers unless otherwise noted.

The two most important parts of your resume are references and a cover letter showing that you understand their mission. - MM

We are alike where it matters. - MM

We're still on the same side even when we have differing opinions. - MM

"Yes men" might feel more comfortable at the beginning, but it will never end well. - SP

There are ways to test drive partnerships. - MM

For every 1 minute of criticism, spend 10 minutes in prayer - Pat Cooper

Don't allow what you admire about your spouse evolve into expectations. Stay grateful and keep admiring your spouse. - MM

Know each other's role is to spur on and encourage in spiritual matters. - SP

Praying for each other and together is the most powerful tool. - SP

Be the biggest cheerleader for your husband. - SP

Cheer your husband on into his potential. - SP

When it stops feeling awkward to promote, it's called pride. - MM

What is the posture of your promotion? - MM

Do you believe what you are promoting? - MM

Promote a purpose, not yourself. - MM

If it starts to feel comfortable to promote yourself, that's a warning sign. - MM

Pray before you do the bills. - SP

Walk into budgeting and bookkeeping with a grateful heart. - SP

All quotes are from Somer Phoebus or Michelle Myers unless otherwise noted.

When you can't find motivation, get in the trenches and serve people. - MM

You don't have to be his Holy Spirit. - SP

We are here to represent Jesus, only God can change hearts. - SP

Trust that God can change hearts. - SP

Trust that God will do what is right when it's right. - SP

Use your words but take the majority of them to Jesus. - MM

We have two responsibilities when it comes to our parents: leave and honor. - MM

If there is tension within a marriage regarding extended family, I would venture to say you could trace the root of it to one of you or both of you not leaving or not honoring. - MM

If you aren't honoring your parents, you feel it. - MM

Leave and honor simultaneously. - MM

"God, hide us so that others can see you." - MM