

What Is My Calling?

Somer Phoebus

All quotes are from Michelle Myers or Somer Phoebus unless otherwise noted.

It's very dangerous when we question our calling.

When we start to wonder about our calling, we start to feel stuck.

We can't let other people speak louder than the Holy Spirit.

We have to be sensitive enough to hear the Holy Spirit.

In scripture, the general idea of calling is much deeper than any one part of your life.

Calling does not equal only your job/vocation.

Circle #1: Follower of Christ

Matthew 28:19-20

Where you are is where you are called if you are walking with the Lord.

In walking with the Lord, we are answering the most vital call on our lives.

"Go and make disciples"

Everything you do should be focused on discipleship.

Our first calling from the Lord - go and make disciples!

You can't follow Christ and not make disciples.

What does it mean for us as women?

Circle #2: Woman of God

Genesis 2:18-20

We were created as a helper.

It's life giving when we live out how we were created.

Being a helper is enough.

Ephesians 5:22-29

Husbands being the head of the home is an ontological position. It is the way God made them.

The function of the husband is to love.

Submission is our way of receiving that love.

We are the helper and our husbands are the head.

Our function is for the men to love us and through that love, we are going to receive it by being submissive.

Chauvinism is a lie from Satan.

Circle #3: Individual

Ephesians 2:10

We are His workmanship.

He prepared us beforehand.

He gave us the exact gifts and abilities to use where we are right now.

You can't spend more time studying yourself than studying God.

Out of that, he shows you who you are, your unique gift sets.

Jeremiah 1:5

If you don't know where you're called, it's because you're not paying attention.

He doesn't want us wasting time.

We don't have to wait on being a helper and making disciples.

If what God is truly concerned with, is following Christ, then what do you think it should be for us?

Our highest concern should be being a follower of Christ.

Rejection from the world is not rejection from your God.

You will feel most fulfilled when you're where God wants you.

Out of following Christ and being a woman of God, opportunities will come. Opportunities that God wants us to have.

"Calling" is so much more than a vocation.

We over-spiritualize "calling" but our calling is where God has us.

Using our unique gifts and abilities to walk out His plan for our life is our calling.

What we should be asking is "How do I obey with my feet?"

Walk in obedience and ask God to close doors.
