God's plan is always better. - SP

It is impossible to see what God is writing when we are so close to it. - SP

While you are grieving, you are surrendering. - SP

Make sure that your grief doesn't become an idol. Idols are not just good thing, but they can be bad things that we put before God. - MM

Decide right now: "God is good and I am going to live in that." - MM

Don't get ahead of God in your hopes and dreams for your children. - SP

Every time you say yes, you also say no to something (your spouse, your children, your ministry/church). - MM

When you are constantly saying yes, you rob someone else the opportunity to say yes. - MM

Working moms are the busiest women in the world - getting their attention is a challenge. - SP

Make the decision that's best for your family and where you feel God calling you and trust him with your work/career. - MM

Do your best in the place that you're in. Work hard, but make sure that you're giving time to something that you are passionate about. - SP

Don't expect fulfillment and passion from your job. - SP

Be above reproach in the business that pays the bills. - MM

Honor your current job. Be all there. - MM

Entrepreneurship is understanding that you do a lot of work that you don't get paid for. - MM

Ephesians 5

The head of the household is who he is not what he does. - KP

The man is to love his wife. - KP

You are being asked to submit to your husband to allow them to love you well. - KP

You, as a wife, are to submit to your husband and allow them to love you. - KP

Leading comes from a place of love. - SP

My submission receives his love. - SP

Genesis 2

One of the consequences of sin is understanding that I am going to naturally desire to rule over my husband.
- MM

It is a choice to surrender to God and not give into the fleshly nature that wants to rule over him. - MM

Jesus defined leading as serving. - MM

Being a helper is not weakness. - MM

It's ok to be relaxed and easy going as long as it doesn't turn into passivity. - MM

It's ok to be a go-getter as long as it doesn't turn into being a control freak. - MM

When we are both under His authority, we are both submissive. - SP

Submission is not the problem. We submit all the time, we just submit to weaker authorities in the world.
- MM

You should not let culture determine roles in a marriage. - KP

The Bible is not where stereotypes came from. - SP

Don't expect your husband to be the spiritual head of the home if you are spiritually more mature. - SP

You can be the spiritual leader of the home that comes from a place of humility. - SP

As long as you over-initiate, your husband will pull back. That's his sin nature. - JM

A husband is designed to cultivate a love for Jesus in you. - JM

A healthy marriage is one that affirms and submits. - JM

The best idea wins. - JM

Check on each other spiritually. Ask your spouse if they've been in the Word. - SP

You need to have gospel-centered conversations even at home with your spouse. - SP

We read to spend time with God. - JM

Robby Gallaty's HEAR method.

There are two commands when it comes to our parents as adults: honor and leave.

Prioritize what leaving looks like and cleave to your spouse. - MM

If there are issues with your parents as an adult, more than likely, it's because there's a "leave" problem or an "honor" problem. - MM

Honoring still must take place with your parents. - MM

You are going to have to adjust your boundaries as seasons change with aging parents. - MM
