

BEING A MISSIONARY IN CORPORATE AMERICA

J. Nicole Warren

At the end of the day, if it's not His way, there is no way.

We want to do the work OF God. But we've got to do the work WITH God.

Just because it's legal does not mean it's right.

Just because we're in corporate America, doesn't mean we have to quote scripture.

Just because it's good for the business, that doesn't mean it's good for the people in the business

Mindful of who I am in Christ first.

I am a believer before I am in HR. How can I demonstrate it to the world? I walk it out.

We're not just meant for Sundays.

The power of the Word. It is a living and breathing Word of God.

We have to still ourselves enough to hear His voice over other all other voices.

Show me. Lead me. Guide me.

When you walk it out consistently, there is a light that shines on you and people are drawn to you naturally.

There is an excellence that I want to work in.

Channel your ambition for a Kingdom purpose. - SP

When you focus on the Kingdom, the promotion comes.

When we're always striving for the next level, we forget where we're at and who we need to impact.

Sometimes He keeps us where we're at because there's more people we need to impact where we're at now.

Have you gained everything that you need to out of this season of your life?

Run it through the Word filter.

Does it align with the Word?

Find a network that can keep you accountable.

A lot of people wear the title of Christian but don't walk it out.

It's not about the next promotion. It's about how I can fulfill Kingdom work in corporate America.

My ministry is impacting people day to day.

Daniel 6:3

His way is higher than our way.

Do right by the Father and you can't be sub-par.

Show up with a spirit of excellence.

Are you looking to condemn someone or are you looking to uplift someone?

We bring people to the Kingdom through love.

You're not making disciples by condemning people.

If you go live in your Christian bubble, you're being disobedient.

Matthew 28:19-20

You may be the only version of Jesus Christ that someone experiences.

Show God is with you through the good times and the bad times.

You are put there to be an example.

If you run from the dark place, your light is not there.

Your light is only bright in a dark place.

Do you want to be a thermometer or a thermostat?
