

LIVING UNDER YOUR POTENTIAL

Dara LaPorta

All quotes are from Dara LaPorta unless otherwise noted.

I was searching for a different voice.

I was following my own selfish ambition and I was getting off track.

SWHW charge class in the archives.

Why is it when we're content and at peace, we feel like we're doing something wrong?

We may have to live under our potential in some areas of our lives in order to live to our full potential in other areas. - Somer Phoebus

Live under your potential is not:

- showing up late to work
- not serving your clients well
- not an excuse to not do what the Lord has called you to do

The pressure of feeling like you have to live up to your potential in every area of your lives - to be all the things to all the people.

Colossians 3:23

Peace in the pace of life.

My heart, goals and what really matters has changed.

#1: Live out your calling in this season.

Jesus did not live up to culture's expectations. He was obeying the will of the Father.

Know the difference of just because you can doesn't mean you should.

Jesus lived up to his mission, not his potential.

#2: Walk with the Spirit

Do you trust me enough to walk instead of run?

Ephesians 5:15

Keep in step with the spirit

All quotes are from Dara LaPorta unless otherwise noted.

Galatians 5:25

Romans 8:6

There is a confidence that came when I invited the Holy Spirit into my day.

#3: Make more time for play and for rest

Put fun on your to do list.

God is not the one holding us back.

God will use us best in the things we love doing the most.

Lord let me not give up on the work you have me doing just because I am not the best at.

When there is margin in your potential, there is room for God to move.

2 Corinthians 3:5

John 15:3-5

Leave room at the top of your potential.

Living under your potential looks like trust.

1 Corinthians 8:6

Colossians 3:17-18

Books Mentioned:

Invitation to Solitude and Silence
Book by R. Barton and Ruth Barton

Whisper: How to Hear the Voice of God
Book by Mark Batterson

Growing Boldly Book by Emily Ley

Essentialism: The Disciplined Pursuit of Less
Book by Greg McKeown

Why We Sleep
Book by Matthew Walker